Street Project Proceeds

Dismissal Paves Way For Action

The smoke of battle cleared away last week, leaving the city council a free hand to continue operations on the quarter-million dollar WPA South End street improvement project.

Dismissal in Redwood City, Thursday, of a complaint prepared by Matthew Weber, San Francisco attorney, apparently unwound the last remaining legal tangle standing in the way of the city.

The controversial $253,000 project has been the battle-front in a state-wide campaign on the part of the Associated General Contractors of America to end what they term "WPA competition with private industry."

Bids on the furnishing of materials and supplies will be opened by the council next Monday evening.

The laying of sewer laterals on Moltke and Vale were completed this week, according to Floyd Hardwick, city engineer's representative in charge of operations. Station, Garibaldi and Price are under construction this week.

"Progress made already on this job is really remarkable," Hardwick said today. "The job is going ahead very fast, and the 150 WPA workers employed on the project are setting up a real record for themselves."

COUNTY NEWS IN REVIEW

Counting Time—

With the business census of San Mateo county rapidly nearing completion, work on the house-to-house census taking will start April 4 in San Mateo county, according to Nicholas Diamond, chairman of ennumerators here.

An enlarged list o fennumerators will take over the house-to-house survey probably after three days of schooling.

Grand Jury Wonders—

The grand jury which went into session at Redwood City last Wednesday, will consider three highly controversial problems, according to Foreman Ray Higgins. They are:

1. Whether or not a fulltime health officer should be appointed to assist Dr. C. C. Gans, county health director.
2. Which of several suggested solutions to the tuberculosis problem should be adopted.
3. Bookkeeping procedure at the county relief home.

Thirteen Students—

Additional funds granted to Stanford university by the National Youth administration has made it possible to include the Stanford medical school in the N. Y. A. student work program.

Thirteen deserving graduate students are now able to complete their medical education.

Election Takes Surprise Turn

Pre-election activities in Daly City took an unusual turn this week when free newspaper space was placed at the disposal of each of the six candidates whose names will appear on the ballot, April 9.

As a courtesy to prospective office-holders and to the voting public, The Daly City Record has placed at the disposal of each candidate six full inches of newspaper space. The Record extends an open invitation to each of these candidates to avail himself of this opportunity to place his qualifications before the public.

It is the sincere hope of The Record that this step will prove of value to the electorate in reaching an intelligent decision at the polls, April 9.

Competing for the two places to be filled on the Daly City board of councilmen are four candidates. John J. Fahey, incumbent, is now serving his second consecutive

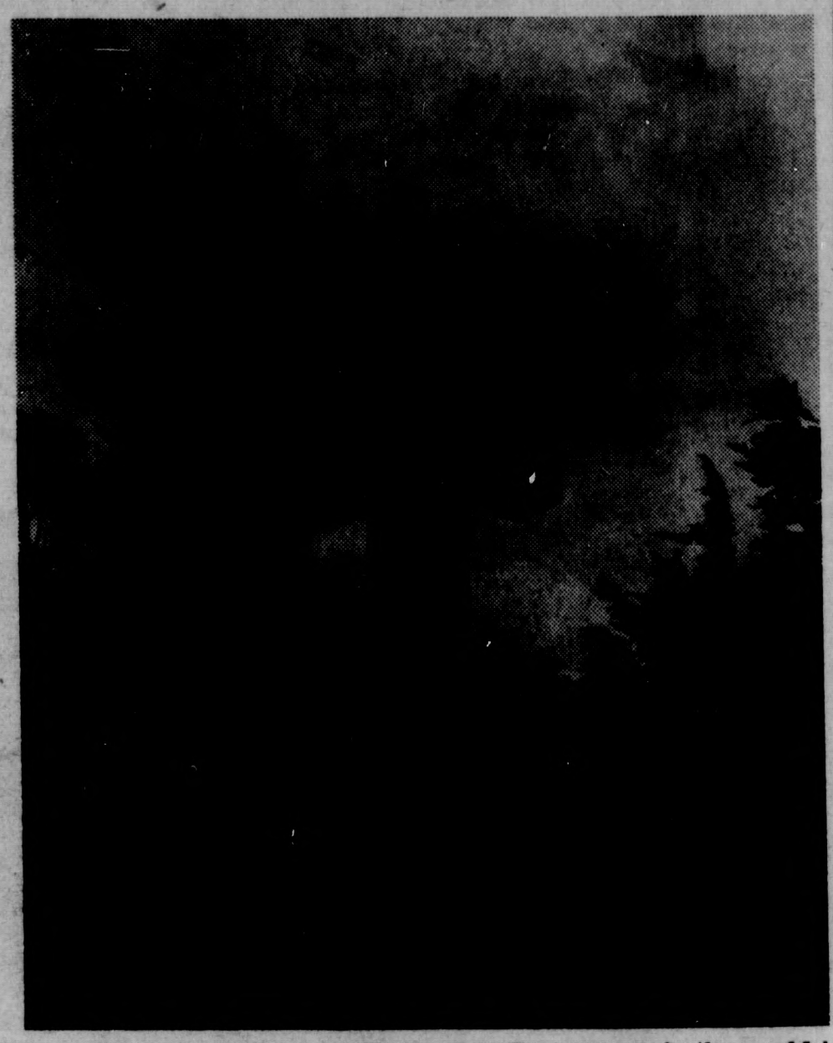
The Cross--Not The Sword



Each evening at sunset the highest Easter cross in the world is flooded with white light atop Mt. Davidson. It burns until 2 a. m., sending an Easter message to ships at sea and to communities about the bay.

Renewing faith and hope to face afresh the dark and baffling problems of a modern civilization, Daly City this week joins the entire Christian world in observance of the ancient rites of Easter.

The passion and resurrection of the Christ will be told in prayer, song and sermon to thousands of Bay area worshippers gathered in outdoor sunrise services or in the hushed interiors of churches and cathedrals.

Thousands will gather beneath the Cross on Mount Davidson, Easter Sunday, when Reverend D. Elton Trueblood, of Stanford university, will deliver an Easter message.

The services, which begin at 5:25 a. m., will be broadcast by the National Broadcasting company, until 6 a. m.

Music will be by the San Francisco municipal band and the Bay Area Lutheran chorus. Frances Hathaway will sing "Alleluia."

Kiddies' Egg Hunt Sunday

Jeff Grounds Scene For Treat

Jefferson Union high school grounds will be the setting, Sunday afternoon, of the largest Easter egg hunt Daly City has ever seen.

So said Bruce H. Boynton, local WPA Recreation director, today, as he enthusiastically outlined plans for the children's annual Easter treat.

From 1 to 2 p. m., Dante P. Lembi's cowboy band and soloists will entertain over the P. A. system. At 2 p. m. the hunt will be on: one for children under six years and another in a different part of the grounds for children between six and twelve years of age.

Thirteen golden eggs hidden around the field will entitle thirteen lucky winners to special prizes awarded for the occasion. Hundreds of other eggs will assure every child an opportunity to take home booty.

Sponsoring the hunt is the local Recreation committee with the Recreation department directing the program. Several city officials are expected to attend.

Prizes have been donated by Henry Warshawski, Milo's Market, Daly City 5 and 10 Cent Store, Vista Grande Market, McGraws' Drug Store, Signal Coffee Shop, Goodness! Candies, James E. Donahue, Peter's Own Lunch, Relish Bakery, Daly City Nut Shop, Dan's Coffee Shop, and P. Morgan.

Officers W. W. Sunderland and A. J. Dalton were detailed to help the state highway patrol in obtaining a comprehensive motorist check. Between 12 midnight and 4 a. m. Sunday, 800 automobiles were stopped.

Results: Two drunken drivers were arrested; one autoist was held for reckless driving; one for "speeding without due caution"; three were cited for having overcrowded front seats; 28 for having miscellaueous mechanical defects, or being without the proper license or certificate, and 33 for having faulty lights.

The majority of the motorists were bound south from San Francisco.

Careening Coupe Leads Merry Chase

City Not So Different On June 16, 1911

Twenty-nine years is a long time. A child may have reached maturity in that time—a carefree juvenile settled into comfortable middle age—a hamlet grown to metropolitan proportions.

Yet, in studying the Daly City Record of June 16, 1911, we are struck with the similarity, rather than the difference, between then and now.

On Monday evening of that long-ago week the Daly City Board of Trustees met. Then, as now, their main topic of discussion was street work.

Whist was one of the most popular evening pastimes.

Organizational life was already playing a large part in the affairs of Daly City. Just a few of the clubs which made the news in the 1911 issue were: Court No. 83, F. of A., County Line Improvement Club, Civic Betterment League, Knickerbocker Whist club, Olive Grove, No. 116. U. A. O. D.

Local and national news of the day has a familiarity that different names and places scarcely conceal. A hot and heavy battle was being waged over the site for the Exposition. G. W. Dickie, civil engineer, had just come forth with ringing arguments to prove that the Merced tract was far superior to the Sutro-Merced tract.

"Redwood City will soon award a contract for the erection of a city hall. Incorporation is evidently a success there."

"As evidence that President Taft's belief that peace has been practically restored in Mexico, with a stable government capable of coping with the situation, the withdrawal by degrees of t h e armed forces of the United States from the doors of Mexico h a s begun."

The U. S. Senate fight of the moment was described as likely "to establish new records for heat and acrimony." The Canadian reciprocity bill happened to be the bone of contention at that moment.

Buried in the context of the story from Washington was this remark: "In the Senate the constitutional amendment providing for the election of United States Senators will be voted on. Indications point strongly to its passage by the necessary two-thirds majority." Could it be that even then the really far-reaching steps taken by our government were obscured by a lot of heated verbiage on issues that would pass with the coming dawn?

In San Francisco, as is scarcely strange, June, 1911, saw t h e Brotherhood of Teamsters demanding shorter working hours and setting a deadline for action on the part of the Draymen's association. Here is a headline with even a more repititious sound: DOUBLE - HEADED POLICE SYSTEM OF SAN FRANCISCO—Patrolmen of the city in little game of who's who, where a n d when." Due to a "hot" political situation, two chiefs of police were in office. The entire department was in a quandary how to serve two masters.

Fashions for milady, although very different in style, were described in much the same hysterical vein as used today. "'Clocked' hosiery has become the newest fad for smartly dressed girls. All the stockings for day wear show this embroidery up the side, sometimes in self-colors, but more often in one contrasting. Red or white on black is beyond doubt the best." Here's something the fashion pictures of the day do not leave us in doubt on—"marabout and ostrich scarfs are more elaborate than ever."

Advertising, although it had not reached the scientific sales application of today, was used extensively. Among the local space buyers of June 16, 1911, were a number who are still customers of The Record: A. L. Stockton Lumber company, Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company, A. Boni Hardware, H. H. Smith Lumber company, Colma Pioneer Market, (M. & S. Belli and company), George Nick, Fancy and Staple Groceries.

Crime stories of the day showed a greater leniency toward murderers and cattle rustling was a staple factor in law-breaking.

The Record is indebted to William A. Thompson, 246 Los Banos avenue, for the opportunity to read the June 16, 1911, paper. Present files do not go back that far. Thompson himself came upon the paper by accident. While repairing a wall, the old copy, yellowed and worn by the years, was found in the lathing.

Hold Funeral Services For Hugh Kinnaird

Funeral services for Hugh Kinnaird, 401 Evergreen avenue, were held at the W. C. Lasswell memorial chapel, Wednesday, by the Excelsior Masonic lodge. Fifty-six years of age, Kinnaird died at his home, Monday.

A native of Scotland, he was employed by the Matson Navigation company. He is survived by his widow, Anita, and two stepsons, Bert and Leonard Wester. Interment was in Olivet Memorial park.

Photogenic Mascot Is Hit Of Parade

Baby Carol Benedetti, 3-year-old mascot of the Daly City juvenile drill team, hung up an unofficial record as being the most photographed person in the St. Patrick's day parade, Sunday, as she led the Daly City unit.

Baby Carol, in red dress, blue cape with white lining and white lapels, and tiny white Russian boots, had her picture taken from every angle several times in each block along the path of the parade. Press camera men and candid camera fans alike, picked Carol out as the most interesting photographic study of the day.

Anton Feparozich, president of St. Vincenza society, after seeing the drill team, invited them to participate in a Feast day celebration parade, April 28. After the parade the unit will be guests at a ravioli dinner given by the society.

DALY CITY DIGGIN'S

"It's All In Fun"

By Bob Keely

In answer to several requests, (that's our story, anyway) we hereby sit ourselves down to weekly, and weakly, whack out a bunch of nonsense on people, things and stuff. You asked for it, so we hope you'll read it once in a while.

ON PEOPLE: "Red" Keithley and Tom Doyle hurrying hither and thither preparing to open their new market . . . Lee Jorgensen chiding "Canvas-back" at the Hilltop . . . John Soldavini, Belli Motor manager, recovering from a severely wrenched arm . . . Andy Vireno jr., back on the job after a swell honeymoon trip . . . and last, but not least, Joe Firpo's two-minute speech that "wowed 'em" at the Italian American Citizens' club banquet Saturday night.

ON THINGS: No beards in evidence for the iFesta . . . or maybe no Fiesta, huh? Remember what a good job the Milo boys did last year on the chin foliage? And the parade on horseback? We got out the pillows for weeks afterward. Dancing seems to be on the way back, locally, judging from the crowds at the Native Sons and Daughters doin's at Masonic temple Saturday night and also at the Italian American Citizens' club bnaquet.

Remember "Sweetheart" — not the picture, but the dove Bob Fessenden, Westl a k e M a r k e t, trained? Well, it seems Bob didn't train the dove NOT to dive into plate glass windows. You see, when the dove dove—that is, the dove dived—oh ,well, funeral services were held last week.

See you in church Sunday—

ADD COUPE TO DE SOTO CUSTOM LINE

New to the De Soto line this year is a convertible coupe in the custom series with a top which folds up or down by power supplied from the engine, reports James E. Donahue, Daly City De Soto-Plymouth dealer.

"The 1940 De Soto coupes are built on the standard 122½ inch wheelbase chassis with 100 horsepower engines, have all other improvements of the current models and are available in either the business or auxiliary seat types," Donahue stated.

"Both types have undivided front seat cushions, 51 inches wide," Donahue continued, "but the seat backs are divided so that they can be tilted forward to give easy access to the compartment in back of the seat.

"A change has been made in the auxiliary seat coupe," Donahue concluded, "which makes the extra-passenger department more comfortable. The auxiliary seats unfold from behind a full-width backrest so that passengers ride facing forward; the cushions drop into place side by side with such a slight space between them that the effect is almost that of an undivided cushion."

What!

In the Doghouse Again?

How sad that in your little home,
Discord and strife should rear their dome;
And all because a dress was torn,
Your little heart should be forlorn.

Now isn't it sad that hubby cries,
And swears he'll blacken both your eyes,
And all you did was scorch the collar
Of a shirt that cost three times a dollar.

But maybe he's got a right to complain,
And you don't want his love to wane,
And so if you're wise you'll mend your ways
And send out the laundry the rest of your days.

Honest Englishman

It's better late than never, reasoned Jesse Wallace, as he walked into a London, England, police station and handed a pair of old-fashioned gold-rimmed spectacles to the desk sergeant. "I found them when I was down here on my honeymoon 25 years ago," he explained, "and the matter slipped my mind until I got home. I decided to turn them over to police on my next visit to London, and this is it."

Swiss Birthrate

The Swiss, with the world's lowest birthrate, may soon become a "vanishing race," latest vital statistics about the nation disclose. Swiss babies born in 1936 were 20,000 fewer than those in 1900, and between those dates the number of births a 1,000 potential mothers slumped from 266 to 131. Should the decline continue, Switzerland's death rate in 1945 will exceed its birth rate.

A toast and speeches featured the dinner, with the cafe dedicating a special song to the club. Pete Scalia took part in the floor show.

Friday night was a great occasion for Vista Garnde Camp No. 6035, Royal Neighbors of America.

Dinner, dancing, music and speech-making marked the festivities. The table was decorated in St. Patrick's day colors, with noise-makers and tiny baskets of Easter eggs as favors.

Chancellor Doris Burdick made a speech describing the founding of the society. Past Oracle Lillian Marshall joined in the fun provided by the committee in charge. Dancing followed the dinner, with Mattie Smith furnishing the music.

Visitors included A. W. Ainsworth, his little daughter, Beverly Jean, and members from the Mission camp. The committee in charge of the evening, Ruth Bower, Cora Ray and Lillian Parker, rated a vote of thanks from the entire gathering.

"Soya Bean II" Joins Boy Scout Troop 141

"Soya Bean II' is now an accepted part of Boy Scout Troop No. 141.

The camp car was officially initiated into the troop, Thursday, before a gathering of 104 persons, when Miss Betty Duffy broke a bottle of soya bean milk across the radiator.

Extolling the virtues of the old "Soya Bean," a transcribed speech by Glenn Goode, introduced by Henry Herting, was broadcast with the aid of a public address system set up by the McCune Sound system comany.

The scout quartette appeared in two recorded songs, adding flourishes of their own to the troop song, "Purple and Gold," and to a selection lamenting the demise of the old "Soya Bean." Members of the quartette include Henry Herting, John Mosman, James Meidl and Glenn Goode.

To Show Musical "Balalaika" At D. C. Theatre

"Balalaika," which comes to the Daly City theatre tomorrow, starring Nelson Eddy and the new and brilliant singing personality, Ilona Massey, is distinct among musicals. It is a musical drama.

Based on the London stage success by Eric Maschwitz, this new and elaborate picture, which introduces Miss Massey to the motion picture public in her first important assignment, is a story of Old Russia before, during and after the Revolution.

Predicated on the romance of a Colonel of Cossacks and the daughter of a revolutionist and potential arch enemy, the story has as its background the stirring events of 1917 to 1923 when teh Czarists and Reds were fighting to the death with the Whites eventually driven into exile.

With such comedians as Charlie Ruggles and Frank Morgan in the cast there is naturally comedy to intersperse the dramatic and romantic story but, essentially, "Balalaika" is an operetta with a sound basis of drama.

One of the most impressive numbers in the picture is the reenactment of an incident in the World War, when Russian and Austrian soldiers faced each other across No Man's land on Christmas Eve and joined in singing "Holy Night." This is done by Eddy and a male chorus of a hundred voices.

Companion feature on the new bill is "Earl of Chicago," starring Robert Montgomery and Edward Arnold.

Girl Scout Committee Complete Whist Plans

Daly City Girl Scout committee wil hold a special meeting at 7:30 p. m., Thursday, March 28, at 101 Parkview avenue, to complete plans for holding a benefit whist some time next month.

The committee met Monday evening at the WPA Recreation office to discuss plans for the Girl Scout camp this summer. Mrs. Paul G. Selmi, committee chairman, and Mrs. Glenn Baker, camp director, inspected the camp site at the Santa Clara county park, yesterday.

Mrs. Joseph Hopp, 431 Niantic avenue, has taken over the leadership of Troop No. 2, replacing Mrs. Ivan T. Budaeff. Mrs. Budaeff will continue her work with the committee.

Varsity Pitching Worries Are Over

It looks like Coach Albert Biggs' worries are over as far as pitchers are concerned on Jefferson's varsity baseball team. Pitching 5 innings of a practice game against Balboa, Thursday, Lee Stephens showed vast improvement over a short ten days ago. Roy Giusti, pitching the last four innings, and being credited for the 3-2 win over Balboa, showed good control and good strategy in facing the opponents' sluggers.

Podidg came through with a homer and the infield and outfield seem to be on their toes and in top form.

The Frosh-Soph team, coached by Carl Sirvain, are having the kinks ironed out in a hurry, and show better play co-operation day by day. Last week they were beaten by Commerce 6-3 and lost to Balboa Frosh-Soph 1-0. A wild pitch from Tuvo to McKinnon at first let in the only run of the game.

Sirvain is getting his boys spotted in the positions where they do the most good and his team will undoubtedly go places before the season is over. The Frosh-Soph schedule will be announced later.

A True Green

The Black forest is not black, nor is the Blue Danube blue, but the Emerald isle is green from the glens of Antrim to Killarney except, as the Irishman says, where it is invisible green.
